Home is Where the Hearth is...

El Camino residences offer specialized adaptations and services for Alzheimer's disease and related disorders. We recognize the importance of family traditions to not only our residents, but to family and friends. Social corners are tucked throughout each community to provide a comfortable environment for friends and family to get together and talk to loved ones. Residents are also encouraged to personalize their surroundings with cherished heirlooms, keepsakes, and furniture creating a comfortable environment that feels warm and cozy. Just like home...

All the Comforts of Home

Our Hearth Room is a cozy place to watch television, read a book or chat with a new friend. A crackling fire warms the room all season long. Comfortable sofas and chairs make this room a place to relax and unwind.

A favorite spot to visit with family and friends, our Living Room features both comfortable and elegant furniture, plus an inviting view of our front porch.

All of our resident rooms have private bathrooms and you also have the option of either a suite or studio apartment. Residents are encouraged to personalize their surroundings with cherished heirlooms, keepsakes, and furniture, creating a comfortable environment that feels warm and cozy. Just like home...

Special social corners are tucked throughout to provide a comfortable environment for family and friends to get together and chat or enjoy a private meal together.
